The Reported Crists in Insurance Business, he Says, to Mainly Imaginary.

A report got abroad yesterday that several f the great fire insurance companies were ers might invest their money in more profitable erprises. Mr. George M. Colt, an agent at 158 Broadway, was said to be moving heaven and earth in an endeavor to establish a plan of action by which the companies could save action by which the companies could save themselves from dissolution or ruin. Mr. Colt said to a SUN reporter;

"There is no real foundation for the report. It is true that there is not at present that cooperation among the companies here that is necessary in a city of this size. We used to have a general understanding about rates and commissions, but some time ago the scheme for coöperation was abandoned. It would be difficult to explain exactly why this took place, but one reason is that every now and then insurance rates have to be readjusted, as shifting population or business makes a difference in realty values. We are in the revisionary stage now. A committee is at work getting up a new schedule of rates for this city, and when it is done all the companies will be working once more on the same plan. It will probably take six months to complete the schedule, and meantime the unrestrained competition of the companies is by no means an unmixed evil. There are certain good things in it that may not be apparent until we get to cooperating again, when the business will be all the stronger for it. I have not heard that any companies are proposing liquidation. That is all non-sense."

A NEW STRAMSHIP LINE

From New York to Europe by Way of the West Indies and South America.

The steamer Prins Maurits, 1,250 tons, Capt. H. Sluiter, left the Prentice Stores, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon for Port au Prince. cargo, including nearly everything from drugs to hardware, will be discharged at Port au Prince, and tropical products will be taken on board. The steamer will touch at Curacao. Porto Cabello. La Guayra, Trinidad, Demerara, Paramaribo, cross the ocean to Havre, and Paramaribo, cross the ocean to Havre, and arrive at Amsterdam during the last week in the month.

The Prins Maurits is the first of the boats of the Royal Dutch West Indian mail service, an entirely new Dutch line, to weigh anchor from New York. She has three sister ships, the Oranje Nassau, 1,250 tons; Prins Willem I., 1,250 tons; and the Prins Frederik Hendrik, 1,500 tons, All four boats are new and classed as Al by the Bureau Veritas and English Lloyds. They have good accommodations for first and second class passengers, and carry no emigrants. They will leave New York on the first of each month. The Prins Willem and Oranje Nassau, which are already under way, will bring cargoes of cocoa, coffee, sugar, goat skins, hides, &c. The agents of the new line in New York are Kunhardt & Co., who also represent the Hamburg-American Packet Company.

THERE WILL BE A DISTURBANCE, And Several of Col. Jones's Liquidators are Extremely Likely to Go,

There is going to be a disturbance in the liquidating bureau of the Custom House, presided over by the redoubtable Col. Jim Jones. It was reported yesterday that an exhaustive document, giving the work of the liquidators for a number of months, had been forwarded for a number of months, had been forwarded to the Collector, and that he was amazed at the astounding number of blunders perpetrated by some of the men who crack themselves up as the boas liquidators of the universe and declare that the Government might as well shut up shop if their services are dispensed with. It was declared that the blunderers would be dismissed. Collector Magone declined to say anything about the matter.

Mr. George H. Creed, confidential clerk and acting Deputy Collector under Deputy Collector Camden O. Rockwell, resigned yesterday, Mr. Creed was appointed in May, 1887, and is to become Tax Collector for Jamaica. He is a Demoorat.

A Self-Possessed Burgiar.

Mrs. Annie McCabe, who has been a widow for one month, and lives on the second floor of 134 Woos-ter street, turned the light low on Monday night, and lay own, half dressed, upon her bed. She was dozing off to sleep when a man whom she had never seen before intered the room, and, shaking her shoulder, said: "I want your money."

Mrs. McCabe was frightened, but she managed to tell

Mrs. McCabe was frightened, but she managed to tell him that she had no money.

"I must have a quarter, anyway," repiled the burglar; and, encouraged, perhaps, by the extremely moderate nature of the demand. Mrs. McCabe screamed loudy for assistance. The robber struck her furiously in the face, blackening both her eyes, and ran down stairs. The landlord, who has his rooms on the first floer, had been aroused by his lodger's cries, and he caught the man as be rushed down stairs.

"Let me zo," exclaimed his captiva, struggling robbers have been at work up sairs, and I smr tunning for the pelice." The landlord, in all confidence, released him, and he field from the house.

Mrs. McCabe, assoon as he had recovered from the shock, was able to turnish the Prince street police with a very good description of her assailant, and late on thought and produce the said to the description of her assailant, and late on the description of Neil was arrested, Yesterday in the Jesserson Marke: Police Court he was held for trial

All the Pactories Working.

The World said yesterday that the Tweedy Manufacturing Company of Danbury and New York had shut down and thrown 1,100 hatters out of employment for an indefinite period. This Mr. Tweedy emphatically denied to a sun reporter yesterday. The largest of the several factories at Danbury, which makes spring and summer goods has not shut down, and will not. The others shut down on Saturday, discharging all their employees, and resumed again on Monday with the greater part of their workmen reengaged. Fresident Tweety saced a circular a month ago notifying the employees that a shut-down would take place on the last day of April. The object of the shut-down was to get rid of a number of workmen who had been there for years and were no longer acceptable to the firm. By discharging all upon a month's warning, and reorganizing the shope at once, it was possible to fill all places and still retain a friendly relation with the trades unions. All the factories are now working, and in the course of a few weeks, it is hoped that they will have the full strength of 1,100 men, and all of them union men. ers shut down on Saturday, discharging all their em-

Quarrelled About Their Laver.

Annie Sharp, aged 29, of 133 West Third strest looked as if she had been whirled around a shart in a machine shop as she stood in the Jefferson Market Police Ceart yesterday. Her face was shockingly cut in half a dozen piaces, and the blood had not been washed off. Jesnie Brown of 313 Brooms street was a prisoner. It seems that the women liad only one sweetheart ho tween them, and, each being desirous of holding him in undivided possession, they quarrelled violenily when they met at Sulivan and Third streets on Monday night, and Jennie gashed Annie with a penknife. She was held in $500 ball.

Ferdinand Carolin, who killed his wife with a hatchet at 47 Stanton street on March 15, was arraigned before Judge Cowing in the General Sessions yesterday, charged with murder in the first degree. His big black eyes snapped and he swayed back and forth with passion when Clerk Hall said to him: 'Carolin, you are indicted for murder in the first degree. Are you guilty or not guilty?" Carolin in a loud, angry voice, eried: "Yes, Carolla in a local I'm guilty."

"What, do you want to plead guilty?" asked Judge Cowing.
"Yes." Carolin said.
"Have you counsel?"

"No."
I will not accept your plea of guilty, but will order a plea of not guilty to be entered on the record."
Lawyer Suydam was assigned to defend Carolin.
Frederick Schilling, who was arrested after being acquitted by a Coroner's jury for killing his wife at his butcher shop. 1.214 First avenue, on March 14, was arraigned before Judge Cowing in the General Sessions resterday, charged with murder in the first degree. DISEASED BLOOD.

Scrofulous, Inherited, and Contagious Humors Cured by Cuticura.

Through the medium of one of your books, received through Mr. Frank T. Wray. Druggist, Apollo, Pa., I became acquainted with your CUTICULA REMEDIES. and take this opportunity to testify to you that their use has permanently cured me of one of the worst cases of blood permanently cured me of one of the worst cases of blood poisoning, in connection with erysipelas, that I have ever seen, and this after having been prenounced incurable by some of the best physicians in our county. I take great pleasure in forwarding to you this testimonial, unsolicited as it is by you, in order that others suffering from similar maladies may be encouraged to give your CUTICURA REMEDIER a trial.
